

Aprilia RS250 Reggiani MK1

Aprilia RS250 Reggiani MK1

This 1995 Aprilia RS250 Reggiani MK1 is a true gem for any collector or enthusiast of Italian sportbikes. Purchased from the original owner, who had ridden the bike for two years before experiencing a piston failure due to an oil reservoir sensor issue, this bike underwent a partial disassembly and was left untouched for a period of time. In August 2016, the bike was acquired and restored with new pistons, cylinders, and seals, bringing it back to life.

The bike starts, runs, and rides well, but it requires a break-in period after the repairs. Only 25 km have been ridden post-repair, ensuring it's in excellent condition to be enjoyed by its next owner. The bike comes with 2 keys, dual steps, a dual seat, the user manual, service manual, and a brochure, all stored in a box.

The only minor issue is a missing "A" sticker on the right side of the fairing, but otherwise, this bike remains in exceptionally clean and original condition, still riding on its original tires.
