

Aprilia RS250 Tuono R Limited

This stunning 2002 Aprilia RS250 Tuono R Limited Edition is not just a motorcycle—it's a piece of history. Owned by just three owners, it has been lovingly maintained and is in fully original condition with no defects. The story of this bike is as special as the bike itself: purchased by a man in Soest who enjoyed it for a few years, it was later sold to the owner of the Bimota Museum, just down the street. The son-in-law of the Bimota Museum owner then took the bike for many years, even selling an original exhaust for the bike through Marktplaats.

After years of anticipation, in 2020, the opportunity finally came for the current owner to purchase this bike, and it's been kept in excellent condition ever since. The bike has had its last maintenance service in November 2024, ensuring it's in top running order. With its rarity, full originality, and fascinating ownership history, this Aprilia RS250 Tuono R is a must-have for any collector or enthusiast.
