

Ducati 750 FI Santamonica

Ducati Santamonica 750

This is your chance to own one of the rarest Ducati F1 variants: the 1988 Ducati 750 F1 Santamonica. Named after the Italian race circuit where Ducati triumphed, this was the final and most exclusive version of the F1 line — only 204 units were ever built. Based on the TT1/TT2 racers, it shares their lightweight frame and competition DNA. This particular bike has covered just 4,998 km and remains in fully original condition. It underwent a major service in 2022 by a renowned Ducati specialist, with invoices included. It's one of the lowest-mileage examples currently for sale worldwide. All import duties have been paid, and it comes with official Ducati authenticity documentation. A museum-worthy collector's item for the true connoisseur.
