

Honda Bol d'Or 900 F2

Honda CB900F2 Bol d'Or 1981 – Classic inline-four with original Dutch papers

The Honda CB900F2 Bol d'Or from 1981 is a true icon of the early superbike era. With its striking red and white color scheme, this machine reflects both performance and endurance, just like its namesake – the famous 24-hour Bol d'Or race. This particular example has 41,404 km on the clock, has been well maintained, and is still equipped with its Dutch registration papers. A reliable and powerful four-cylinder that continues to impress more than four decades later

At VintageMotorcycles.nl, we believe in full transparency, every bike is sold in the condition it's in at the time of sale.

Some still wear their original tyres or brake lines, while others have already been updated. If you'd like additional work such as a service inspection, new tyres, or replacement brake lines, that's always possible at an extra cost. This way, you decide how original — or how ready — your next classic should be.
