

Honda CBR Fireblade 1000

Honda CBR Fireblade 1000

The Honda CBR Fireblade 1000 is an iconic superbike that has set the benchmark for power, precision, and agility. Renowned for its lightweight chassis, razor-sharp handling, and high-revving inline-four engine, the Fireblade is a favorite among performance riders and collectors alike.

This particular CBR Fireblade 1000 has 32,516 km on the clock and comes with French registration papers. It has had only two owners and has been meticulously maintained, including a major engine overhaul at 25,000 km by Honda, which included new fork seals. Additionally, it has recently installed Brembo brake discs and pads on the front wheel, ensuring top-tier braking performance. Security markings have been applied to all key components, providing added protection.
