1987 Honda VFR400R NC24

The 1987 Honda VFR400R NC24 is a lightweight legend with unmistakable race heritage. Finished in the iconic Rothmans livery, this V4-powered sportbike is not only a head-turner but also an absolute joy to ride. Developed for the Japanese domestic market, the NC24 brought high-revving performance and superb balance in a compact package. Its single-sided swingarm, sleek fairings, and precise handling make it a standout in the 400cc class.

This particular bike has only 35,469 km on the clock and has been well maintained. A full service was recently carried out by the previous owner, ensuring it's in excellent mechanical condition. With its 399cc V4 engine producing 58 hp, the bike reaches an impressive top speed of 211 km/h – all while delivering a truly unique engine character and exhaust note.

Whether you're a collector, a rider looking for a precision-handling lightweight machine, or simply someone who appreciates iconic '80s race-inspired motorcycles, this VFR400R is an outstanding example. It comes with Dutch registration papers and is ready for worldwide export. A detailed walkaround video is also available.
