

Rumi Junior 125

The Rumi Junior 125 Racer is a rare and historic Italian racing motorcycle, built during the golden era of lightweight two-stroke competition bikes. Manufactured by Moto Rumi, a company renowned for its finely crafted small-capacity motorcycles, this 125cc racer was designed exclusively for track use, offering a lightweight frame, high-revving two-stroke engine, and exceptional handling.

Based on its design and mechanical features, this Rumi Junior 125 is likely from the 1950s, a time when Moto Rumi was highly active in motorcycle racing. During this period, the company was known for producing lightweight, agile, and powerful two-stroke race bikes that competed in events across Europe.

This particular Rumi Junior 125 comes without registration papers, but it does have a VIN number for identification. It was part of a large collection of Italian motorcycles, making it an excellent opportunity for collectors and racing enthusiasts.

This Rumi Junior 125 Racer is a rare and exciting opportunity for classic racing enthusiasts, collectors, or anyone looking for a unique vintage track bike. With its VIN number, estimated 1950s heritage, and racing pedigree, this is a true piece of motorcycling history. Contact us today for more details or to arrange a viewing!
