Yamaha XS1100 (1982) – Big, Bold, and Beautiful

Looking for a solid classic with muscle and reliability? This 1982 Yamaha XS1100 is just the ticket. With 57,256 km and Dutch registration, this powerhouse four-cylinder has been fully restored by the previous owner and is in excellent running condition. The only changes? A set of aftermarket mufflers for a deeper growl.

The XS1100 was Yamaha's answer to the superbike craze of the late '70s and early '80s – powerful, comfortable, and built for serious miles. This example carries the same DNA, but with a refreshed look and feel, making it perfect for collectors or riders looking for a classic that's ready to hit the road.

The bike can be viewed in the Netherlands. Worldwide shipping available. We're happy to provide additional photos, videos, or shipping quotes on request.
